

ORANGE COUNTY EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES
BASIC LIFE SUPPORT PROCEDURES
AUTOMATIC CHEST COMPRESSION DEVICE, COMPRESSION BAND DESIGN

#: B-040a
Page: 1 of 1
Orig. Date: 10/2008
Revised: 10/01/2018

---

INDICATION:

- Pulseless cardiopulmonary arrest Adolescent/Adult to provide continuous chest compression.

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

- Trauma victims, trauma related cardiopulmonary arrest.
- Chest circumference beyond the fit range for the compression band.
- Recent chest surgery or a chest tube in place.
- Left ventricular assist device in place.

PROCEDURE:

- Remove clothing from thorax area.
- Apply defibrillation-monitor pads to chest in usual location and manner. If device is pass through defibrillator capable, follow manufacturer instructions for specific device.
- Log roll technique:
  - Extend and open device next to patient
  - Log roll patient away from device
  - Slide device under back or patient and roll onto support area of device band
  - Aline and close compression band fully extended on patient chest.
  - Activate device and assess for proper functioning.
- Tilt forward technique:
  - Extend and open device next to patient
  - Lean (sit) patient forward
  - Slide device behind patient and position down to buttocks
  - Position device, check alignment and close compression band over patient's chest
  - Activate device and assess for proper functioning.

DOCUMENTATION:

- Document time device placed.
- Check "AutoPulse® box on PCR.

---

Approved:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "J. Watson".

Review Date: 10/2008; 5/2018
Final Date for Implementation: 10/01/2018
OCEMS copyright © 2018